2016 WLAX Championship: Cardinal Gibbons wins first Women's LAX Title behind Skowron's 8 goals

CARY, N.C. - Cardinal Gibbons jumped out to a three goal advantage, and senior Erica Skowron had two of the game's first three goals, the other was scored by senior Crusader attacker Morgan Winstead. Lake Norman called time out to regroup and that's when Emily Chironna put in the Wildcats first marker of the day.

In the end, Skowron was just too much for the Wildcats to handle as she poured in eight goals on the afternoon and added two assists. She was named the game's Most Valuable Player as the Crusaders won their first Women's Lacrosse State Championship in school history.

Lake Norman dominated the draws on the day with Julianna Dworschak controlling 18 draws of the 22 won by Lake Norman. Dworschak only allowed 8 draws won by the Crusaders. Her dominance in the draw department all afternoon allowed Lake Norman to erase a 5 goal halftime advantage, cutting Cardinal Gibbons lead to just one at 15-14 with 7:50 to play as Dworschak hit Kieran Rinaldi for Rinaldi's fifth goal of the afternoon.

Gibbons responded immediately as Jordan Lappin stepped in to win a draw and Cassie New poured in her only goal of the game with 7:16 to play, making the score 16-14. Lappin and teammate Elizabeth Wilson tacked on two more for the Crusaders to close out the scoring.

Lappin had four goals for the Crusaders, adding two assists. Wilson had three goals and a pair of assists. Winstead had a goal and two assists for the Crusaders. Forbes Collier had a first half goal to round out the scoring for Cardinal Gibbons.

For Lake Norman, Kieran Rinaldi led the Wildcats with five goals, Carly Vaccaro scored four times adding an assist, Chironna and Vanessa Grauds had two goals each, and Dworschak added a single marker and two assists.

2015 WLAX Championship: Lake Norman Nips Cardinal Gibbons In OT To Win NCHSAA Women's Lacrosse

CARY – Sophomore attack player Kieran Rinaldi scored two goals in overtime as Lake Norman edged Raleigh Cardinal Gibbons 17-15 in the North Carolina High School Athletic Association's sixth annual state women's lacrosse championship Saturday afternoon at WakeMed Soccer Park.

The game was knotted at 13-13 with 2:15 to play as Lake Norman moved the ball around and ran the clock down, and Rinaldi scored with 18 seconds to go to put the Lady Wildcats up 14-13. But Gibbons countered with an amazing goal by Erica Skowron just before the final horn to send the game into overtime.

Two three-minute overtimes ensued, with Lake Norman forging a 16-15 lead in the first stanza on goals by Carly Vaccaro and Rinaldi, and then Rinaldi's final goal with 1:42 to go in the second OT period put the Lady Wildcats ahead by the final margin.

No more than two goals separated the teams throughout the first half, which ended in a 5-5 deadlock. Lake Norman opened up a 9-6 lead early in the second half before the Crusaders came back.

Vaccaro finished the day with six goals to end the season with a whopping 87. Rinaldi tallied five times and Julianna Dworschak had three goals.

Jordan Lappin of Gibbons was chosen the Most Valuable Player of the championship with six goals and two assists to end the season with 90 goals. Skowron tallied four times for the Crusaders and Sarah Comstock had three.

Lake Norman outshot Gibbons 36-17 and had a commanding 22-11 edge in draw controls.

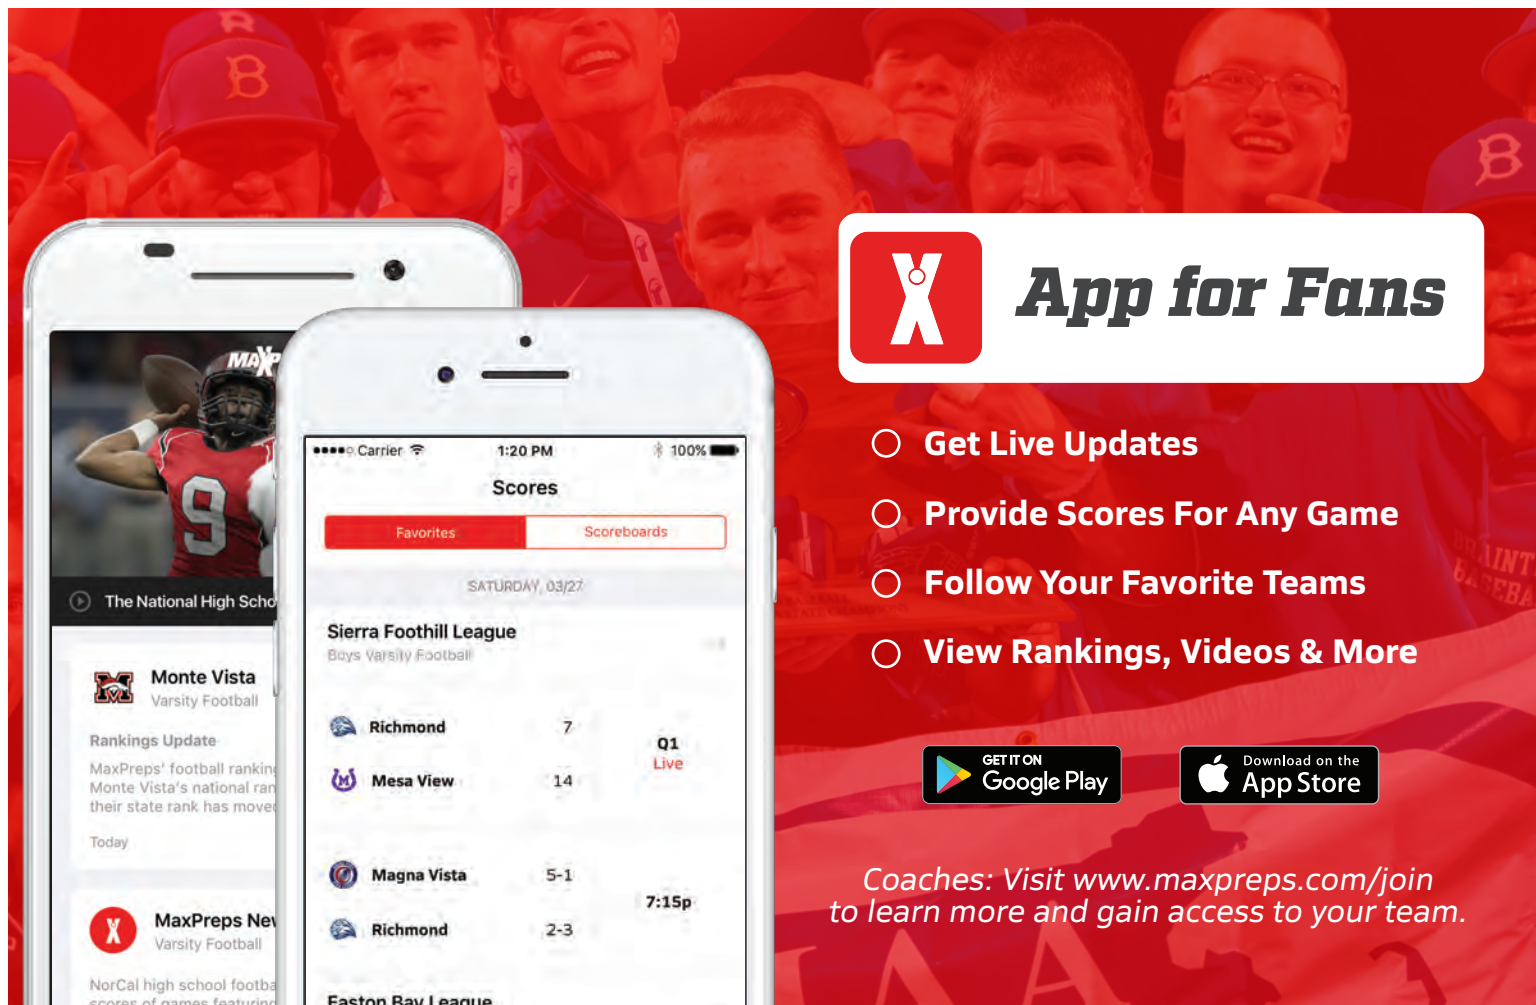

Both teams have been in the playoffs in each of the six years the NCHSAA has had a women's championship. Lake Norman won its first NCHSAA state title in the sport and finished the season with an 18-2 record. Gibbons, in its first women's final, wound up 19-2 overall.

The women's lacrosse state championships are currently conducted as an "open" tournament, with all classifications competing for a single crown.

After the fourth goal of the night for James Shipley, Chapel Hill responded with a pair of goals, one by Austin Cicale from Michael McLaughlin and the other unassisted by Grubbs, trimming the third quarter deficit to 12-4 heading into the final quarter.

The Warriors proved to be too much in the final frame, as Todaro added a pair of goals and Will McKeegan and Chazton Jordan both got in on the scoring. Chapel Hill's lone goal of the period came as Braxton West cut towards the crease and Gleiter hit him with a beautiful behind the back feed to set up the Tigers' lone goal of the fourth.
