NCHSAC Championship Results

The North Carolina High School Athletic Conference served for many years as the athletic organization for historically black high schools. The NCHSAC conducted championships in several sports, and Dr. W.T. "Army" Armstrong of Rocky Mount served as commissioner for many years.

The NCHSAA has spent quite a bit of time and effort trying to research state champions and other facts about the Conference, although what had been uncovered was sketchy. Recently, though, we acquired some documents which Tim Brayboy, who worked for the state Department of Public Instruction before his retirement, had discovered, and it sheds terrific light on the organization. The organization was fairly loosely knit in the 1920's and '30's, basically consisting of 30 to 35 black high schools with no well defined or consistent plan for declaring championships in any sport.

In 1946, a meeting was held in Charlotte to discuss reorganization. Dr. Armstrong was asked to draw up a constitution with rules and regulations, suggest fees, and establish basic guidelines. There were 35 schools represented at that initial meeting. The organization actually used two different names during its time, including the North Carolina Negro High School Athletic Association and then the North Carolina High School Athletic Conference.

The conference's record membership was 215 high schools in 1959. That level stayed fairly consistent until the late 1960's, as integration began to take place. At its height, the Conference had approximately 90 football teams, 215 basketball teams, 75 in baseball, 30 in tennis and 40 in track.

In its last year of operation, in 1969, the NCHSAC was down to 48 schools, including 17 with football teams, all 48 with basketball, nine with baseball, four in tennis and five in track.

Any additions or correction to the championship list may be sent to James Alverson at the NCHSAA.

INDIAN HIGH SCHOOL TOURNAMENT

The Robeson Indian High School Athletic Conference began interscholastic participation in the 1920's. Original members of the conference were Fairmont, Green Grove, Magnolia, Pembroke, Piney Grove, Prospect and Union Chapel. Teams competed in several sports, but the post-season basketball tournament at Pembroke State was always a highlight of the year. With consolidation reducing the number of schools to four, the league added Hawkeye (Hoke County) and Les Maxwell (Cumberland in 1966 to become the Tri-County Indian High School Athletic Conference. Then in 1968 the schools joined the NCHSAA, just as the schools in the North Carolina High School Athletic Conference for black high schools did.

We are grateful to Tim Brayboy for this historical research.
