NCHSAA Hall of Fame Committee,

Because this nomination is a no-brainer as the saying goes, I'll be brief. Greg Grantham should have been inducted into your Hall of Fame years ago for all he's done for basketball and the NCHSAA.

Greg is the NCCA's stand-by Basketball All-Star Coordinator when Reggie Peace is unable to work. Currently he organizes and leads the MVP selection committee for the games.

Greg has been an indispensable player in putting on the NC/SC Carolinas Classic All-Star Basketball Games in Wilmington. Since 2018 he has been the game program editor and, along with Brett Queen, the nuts and bolts coordinator and liaison between the sponsor and the NCCA office, which administers the games. Without his efforts, I don't think the games would still be played in North Carolina. Greg's also the leader who also does the grunt work when needed.

He has served on several NCHSAA committees and has won three of your major awards. He has frequently and persistently presented the wants of his NCBCA members to your staff and Board and I know how much the NCHSAA staff values his input.

I'm writing this before I have access to his coaching record but Greg is being nominated for his administrative and basketball organizational accomplishments. His coaching just gave him the platform and credibility to accomplish what he has. Your nomination form states that "Candidates will be judged on their long-term contributions to high school interscholastic athletics governed in the State of North Carolina by the North Carolina High School Athletic Association..." I'm confident Greg's service to the NCHSAA and its related organizations is more than enough to warrant his induction into the Hall of Fame.

To whom it may concern:

I have known Greg Grantham for over 25 years and have watched him work in a variety of capacities. As a coach, teacher, administrator, colleague, and friend, Greg strives for excellence in everything he does. He is a tireless worker and a person of great integrity. He is someone that makes anything that he is a part of better.

I first met Greg when he was coaching at White Oak High School. We played against his teams for several years when we were both members of the Mideastern Conference. Greg's teams were always very well prepared. He was an extremely successful coach and I have watched in the years since he retired from coaching many interactions between him and his former players. It is quite evident that he deeply cared for his players and they have a great appreciation for what he meant in their lives!

Greg has been the Executive Director of the North Carolina Basketball Coaches Association for several years. Working alongside him in that organization, I see the time and effort he puts in to make the NCBCA the best it can possibly be. From growing our membership to unprecedented numbers, establishing programs to recognize student-athletes and coaches for their excellence on and off the court, and running high-quality NCAA Live Period events, Greg has made the NCBCA a nationally respected coaches association.

Greg has also represented North Carolina on the national level as a member of the National High School Basketball Coaches Executive Board and has also served on the NFHS Basketball Rules Committee.

Greg has dedicated his life to high school athletics and has served his schools, his organizations, and his state well. He is as invested in his jobs as anyone I have ever met and I am very honored to be able to work with him on a daily basis. It is with great pleasure that I recommend him for the Hall of Fame.

Sincerely,

Brett Queen
