PRE-GAME EAP REVIEW

- Before each home contest
- Led by Game Day Administrator or designee
- Key talking points:
 - Who will take the lead on the response to an injured/ill individual?
 - Who will contact EMS?
 - What emergency equipment is available? Where is it located? Who will retrieve it?
 - Where will EMS access the venue?
 - Who will perform crowd /scene control?
 - Who is monitoring the weather, and who will decide on the suspension of play due to weather disturbance? What has been designated as a safe shelter?
 - Pre-Game EAP Review cards available at the registration table or by mail: Email for Janna: janna@nchsaa.org

NCHSAA MEDIA PASSES

- Member schools are not required to honor NCHSAA Year-Long Media Passes at regular-season contests.
- Pass holders have:
 - Completed a background check within the past year.
 - Either:
 - Affiliation with a recognized media outlet, or
 - Letters of recommendation from Coaches, ADs, or Principals.
- Passes must be accepted at all NCHSAA post-season events.
- Report any misuse to Brandon Moree (brandon@nchsaa.org) for possible revocation.

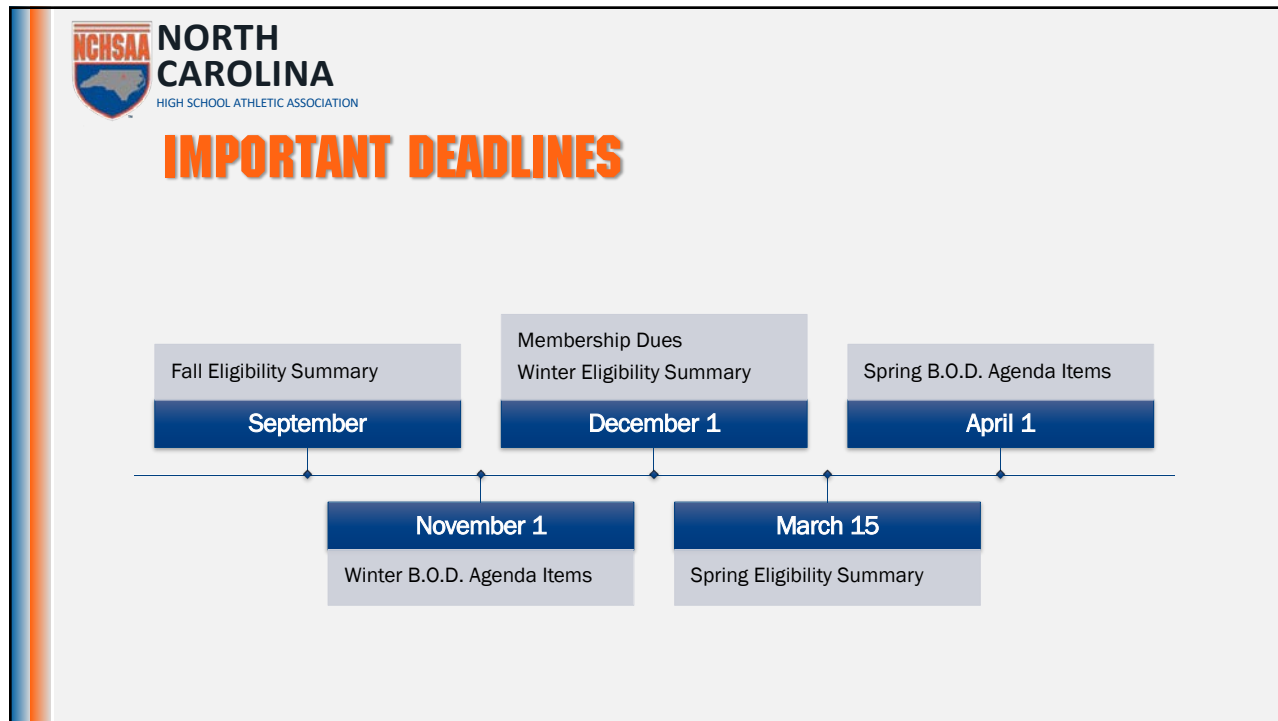

100

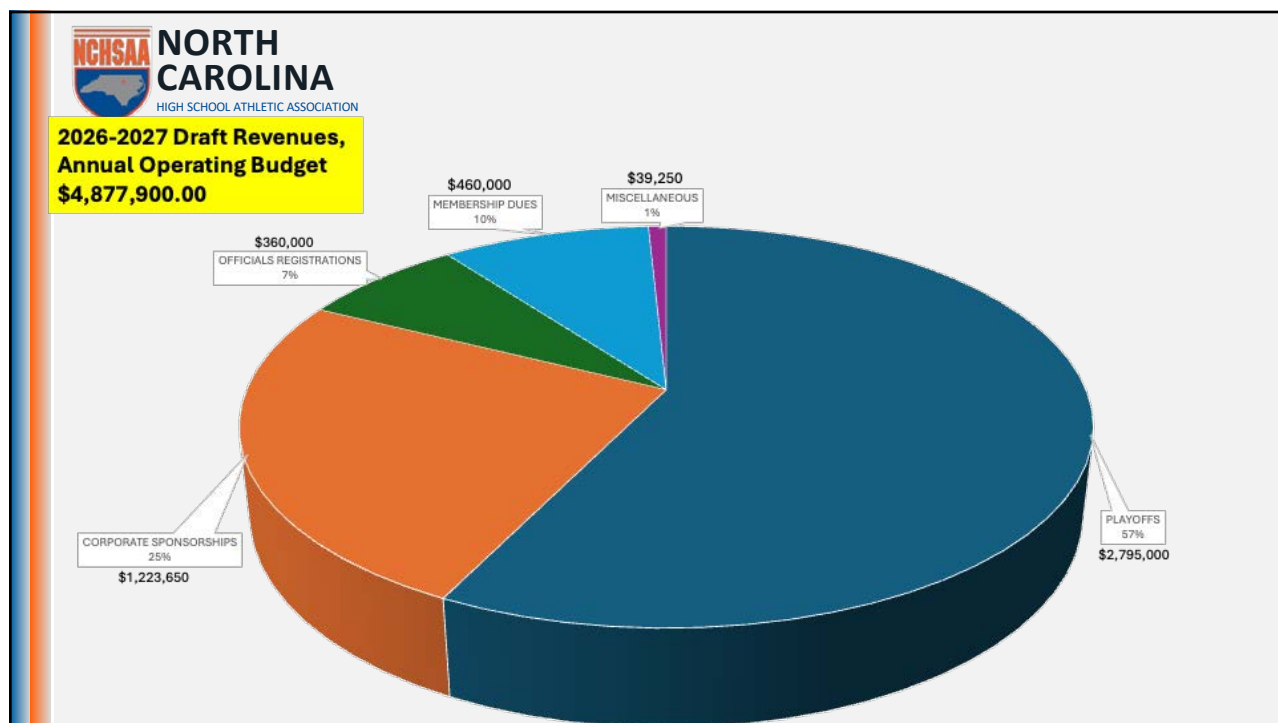

BROADCAST RIGHTS

- The NCHSAA has no jurisdiction over broadcast rights during the regular season. Those belong to the host school. Schools have the autonomy to set whatever fee they desire for radio or video broadcasts of their contests, or charge no fee at all.
- In the post-season, the NCHSAA owns the radio AND video broadcast rights to all contests.
- If games are NOT already scheduled to be on the NFHS Network, third parties — including schools — may broadcast video streams of those games for a fee. Schools and/or third parties must complete the Broadcast Request Form on the NCHSAA website and receive approval from the NCHSAA.
- Schools can negate the fee if they involve students in the production process and share the feed with the NFHS Network.
