INAUGURAL NCHSAA FLAG FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS GAME NOTES

November 14, 2026

The North Carolina High School Athletic Association NCHSAA will crown its first three Flag Football State Champions on Saturday, November 14, at Helen and Leonard Moretz Stadium on the campus of Lenoir-Rhyne University in Hickory. The championships mark a historic milestone for the Association as the inaugural sanctioned season concludes with six teams competing for state titles.

The day begins with the 1A–6A Championship at 11 a.m., featuring Roxboro Community and Phillip O. Berry. Wakefield and Palisades will meet in the 8A Championship at 2 p.m., followed by Holly Springs and Cox Mill in the 7A Championship at 5 p.m. The East Regional Champions will be the home team on the scoreboard.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. — The North Carolina High School Athletic Association (NCHSAA) has officially partnered with FlagStat, designating it as the statistics platform for flag football across the state.

“Our priority is always focused on serving our member schools and creating exceptional experiences for our student-athletes,” said NCHSAA Commissioner Brad Alford. “Our partnership with FlagStat brings best-in-class modernization to our growing number of flag football coaches and athletes across North Carolina.”

“FlagStat has been conceived, and built, as the operating system for flag football,” said FlagStat CEO Bradley Metrock. “We are thrilled to partner with Commissioner Alford and the NCHSAA to bring this elite digital infrastructure to North Carolina’s high school programs.”

The agreement begins immediately, ensuring all participating NCHSAA member institutions have access to the FlagStat ecosystem ahead of upcoming competitive seasons.
